To be published in three volumes by the National Library of Wales and the University of Wales Centre for Advanced Welsh and Celtic Studies
September 2020

Vol. I: Manuscripts

Summary descriptions of some 3,300 manuscripts written in Welsh between c.800 and c.1800, including manuscripts written in other languages, mainly English and Latin, which relate to Welsh literature and learning.

Vol. II: Scribes

A register of about 1,500 scribes known by name and anonymous ones whose hands have been identified in two or more manuscripts, detailing their contributions to the manuscripts. The second part of Vol. II contains comprehensive indexes to place-names and personal names, a subject and text index and a chronological index of manuscripts.

Vol. III: Plates

About 900 specimens of the various scripts of the 600 most significant scribes in Vol. II.

A full prospectus, with sample pages from all three volumes, is available at www.library.wales/repertory or by contacting repertory@library.wales
